Shaun is a student-at-law in the McLennan Ross Edmonton office.

Prior to completing his Juris Doctor at the University of Alberta Faculty of Law in 2020, Shaun earned a Bachelor of Commerce (Major in Accounting) from MacEwan University.

During law school, Shaun served as a caseworker with Student Legal Services of Edmonton, criminal law project. He volunteered with an assisted living chess program through which he taught chess to seniors in an effort to mitigate symptoms of dementia. He also played guitar and bass in the student band for Law Show.

While completing his law degree, he worked as a summer law student at McLennan Ross and as an Assessment Review Board officer for the City of Edmonton Tribunals division.

Outside of law, Shaun enjoys working on classic cars, playing chess, music, and weightlifting.
